

OREGON SHEEPDOG SOCIETY
CHECK- OFF LIST FOR
INSURING/PUBLISHING/SANCTIONING TRIALS

Thank you for giving the Oregon Sheepdog Society the opportunity to promote the improvement of the working dog. The OSDS offers several benefits that OSDS members may take advantage of to help put on trials within the Northwest. Sanctioning of trials hosted by OSDS members in good standing is free. The OSDS does require all trials make entry for all trials open and fair for all of its members and that at least 40 teams are allowed to compete.

What does the OSDS need from trial host?

- Do you want the OSDS to help with insurance needs? If so please fill out form INS – 1. Requests for insurance must be received 60 days prior to your event. Payment must accompany insurance request form. $25.00 for general insurance is required. Additional policies are available if necessary. Please see additional fees on INS-1 form. Please send payment to treasurer (Donna Grimes)

- Do you want the OSDS to help with your publication needs? If so please fill out form PUB- 1. Your entry form must be sent 60 days in advance to the editor (Geri Byrne) deadline for entry forms or other information is the 1st of every odd month for example: March, May, July etc... Payment must accompany publication request form. $25.00 per entry form is required. Double sided entry forms are an additional $10.00. If holding a clinic in addition to a trial publication fee is additional $10.00. Please send payment to treasurer (Donna Grimes).

- Do you want the OSDS to sanction your event but already have insurance. If so please fill out the form SANC-1. This will ensure that the points accumulated at your trial will count for year end awards. There is no fee to be paid. Please send the completed forms to treasurer. (Donna Grimes)
*Note- In order to be sanctioned, OSDS requires they mail your entries.

- Are you planning a clinic in conjunction with your trial? If so extra insurance may be needed. A fee of $25.00 dollars is required. Please fill out form INS-1. Payment must accompany insurance request form. Please send payment to treasurer (Donna Grimes).
